To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Pete Bunke. Pete has completed a three-month internship, performing the duties of a Digital Media Assistant at the ARTSblock organization of the University of California, Riverside.

Pete has proven to be an ambitious and self-motivated employee who continually seeks out opportunities that add value to our organization. He is quite creative and has been a pleasure to work with. When given a goal, Pete works in a very focused manner until the effort is completed into a deliverable product.

Pete provided coding and design work on the major marketing efforts at the ARTSblock, including the weekly film newsletter, the monthly events newsletter, and an animation sequence we are beginning to use for all our video presentations. When working with peers or management, he has been friendly, diplomatic, and a pleasure to work with.

Pete's professional graphic design and coding skills are excellent. His ability to research a complex topic and provide a summary conclusion has been quite helpful.

Pete Bunke would be valuable to any organization fortunate enough to have him on staff.

Sincerely,
